BOY GETS DRUNK ASPAPA LOOKSON

15-year-old Lad Drinks Five Beers and Large Quantity Whisky.

IS LOCKED UP BY POLICE

Falls to Ground Inesensible as Result of Excesses—Saloon Man Is Fined.

A youthful offender in the shape of a 15-year-old boy faced the judge in police court this morning, charged with intoxication. The little fellow, who drank five beers and a large quantity of whisky in a local summer garden yesterday afternoon, while his father looked on, was brought into the police station senseless and was still under the influence this morning. The saloon keeper, Joe Busche, who operates a place at 203 Twenty-second street, was haled into court on a charge of selling liquor to minors, and was fined $50 and costs. He was also warned that a repetition of the offense would be followed by the revocation of his license.

DRINKS A LOT.

The boy, Wilbur Ballard, resides in East Moline. Yesterday afternoon, accompanied by his father, Walter Ballard, he entered the Twenty-second street summer garden. With them were Lovell Gray and Clara Schultz, alias Nellie Gray, both well known police characters, who were driven out of town some time ago. The saloon keeper claimed that the father had said it would be all right to sell his son drinks, but when the lad took the stand, this was shown to be false. The boy said:

"I was sitting in the summer garden with my father and a man named 'Circus' (Lovell Gray) and a woman. I went into the saloon alone and asked for a beer. The man gave me a little one. Then I drank another. A little while afterward I went in again and asked for another beer. The saloon man asked me if I wanted big ones or small ones, and I said, 'big ones.' I drank three of them. Then I came back and bought a half pint of whisky for a quarter. The saloon keeper asked me if I wanted it wrapped up and I said 'No.' I put it in my pocket and when I got out in the garden I drank about half of it and Circus drank the rest. Then a fight started in the saloon and a policeman came. After that I don't remember anything." The large beers sold to the boy were in glasses which hold over a pint.

The boy and his father were dismissed and warned to stay away from Rock Island. The cases of Nellie and Lovell Gray were continued for 10 days.

FINE DRIVER FOR SPILLING STONE

John Carter Arrested for Littering the Streets—Practice Must Stop.

John Carter, a driver for the McCarthy Construction company, was arrested this morning on complaint of Commissioner Archie Hart for littering the street. Carter was hauling a wagonload of crushed stone, which was being spilled more or less on the pavement at every jolt of the wagon.

The driver was fined the costs in the case and dismissed with a warning to be more careful in the future. Hart is determined that the streets shall be kept free from rubbish as much as possible.

SUGAR AND WOOL ON THE FREE LIST

Democratic Senate Caucus Is Finally Victorious After Long Hard Fight.

AMENDMENTS ALL FAIL

Sherman, Acting on Chicago Protests, Seeks Duty on Sewing Machines.

Washington, June 26.—Free sugar in 1916 and free raw wool are now established in the tariff revision bill, having been approved late yesterday by the Democratic caucus of the senate after a two days' fight. The sugar schedule as reported by the majority members of the finance committee and practically as it passed the house, was approved by a vote of 40 to 6. Free raw wool as submitted by the majority and just as it passed the house, swept the senate caucus by a vote of 41 to 6.

This ratification of President Wilson's tariff policy—he having insisted upon the wool and sugar propositions before the ways and means committee in the beginning—came after a long series of developments since the tariff bill passed the house, in which the president has been an active participant.

LOBBY INQUIRY, THEN VICTORY.

When the fight of the anti-free wool democrats was getting hot the president issued a public statement declaring that any suggestion of compromise on his wool and sugar schedule ideas was absolutely out of the question. Later he stirred all administration leaders to action when he made his charge about the existence in Washington of an "insidious lobby," investigation of which has brought results regarded as favorable to the tariff bill.

The six democratic senators who voted against free sugar on the final vote approving the schedule were Hickcock, Nebraska; Newlands, Nevada; Ransdell and Thornton, Louisiana; Shafroth, Colorado, and Walsh of Montana. The six who opposed free raw wool to the end were Chamberlain of Oregon, Newlands, Nevada; Ransdell and Thornton, Louisiana; Shafroth and Walsh.

ALL AMENDMENTS FAIL.

All amendments were voted down. Senator Shafroth's amendment would have eliminated free sugar and substituted a duty of approximately ½ cent a pound on refined sugar. This amendment was lost by a vote of 37 to 10.

When this had been lost Senator Thompson of Kansas offered an amendment to retain the Underwood rate for three years, reduce it 50 per cent in 1916 and 25 per cent each succeeding year until it reached the free list. An amendment was offered by Senator Thornton to eliminate the free sugar provision and maintain the Underwood rates indefinitely.

Senator Walsh offered an amendment to the wool schedule proposing a duty of 15 per cent ad valorem on first-class wools, and that wools of the second and third class, such as carpet and clothing wool, be free. This was defeated, as were the others.

When sugar and wool had been disposed of the caucus ratified the committee amendment placing hair of the Angora goat on the free list.

AGRICULTURAL SCHEDULE VEXES.

Consideration of the agricultural schedule was then resumed, and a dispute at once arose over the committee amendment putting a countervailing duty on wheat and flour. As the discussion developed the opposition grew, and decision of the question went over until tomorrow.

Some democrats asserted following the adjournment the countervailing duty would be stricken off, leaving wheat and flour on the unrestricted free list, on a parity with cattle and meats.

A voluminous protest against the removal of the protective tariff from sewing machines was received yesterday by Senator Sherman from seven independent sewing machine manufacturing companies separate from the Singer concern.

Among the signers of the protest were the Free Sewing Machine company and the Foley & Williams Manufacturing company of Chicago and the National Sewing Machine company of Belvidere, Ill.

MANUFACTURERS FEAR RUIN.

These companies, which employ 6,500 men, say they will be ruined by the free listing of their product, now protected by a duty of 45 per cent. They say they are barred by high tariffs from all foreign countries save England, which produces machines equal in quality to the American make. In addition, the Singer company has factories in Scotland, Germany, Russia, and Canada, where it maintains 75 per cent of its working force. If the tariff be removed, it is contended, the Singer company and English concerns, employing cheap foreign labor, will be able to undersell the independent American companies on the American market.

Senator Sherman will offer an amendment to restore protection to sewing machines.

RICH FARMER IS HELD AS SLAVER

Marshalltown, Iowa, June 26.—Myron Magruder, a wealthy retired farmer of Kankakee, Ill., who is also connected with an automobile concern of Kenosha, Wis., and who is known as "the millionaire auto salesman," is under arrest here at the instance of the federal authorities. Magruder, who was arrested with a young woman, has a wife and three children in his Kankakee home.

The young woman is Annetta Keger of a prominent Bradley, Ill., family. Last Friday the police were called to a rooming house here on the report that she had attempted to shoot herself. When confronted by the officers Miss Keger denied it, but declared she had threatened to do so in order to prevent being abandoned by Magruder.

She said she had been with him on frequent trips through Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin during the last four or five months. Magruder laid the blame on the girl, declaring that she had followed him from place to place.

The pair will be taken to Des Moines, where he will be arraigned before the federal court. Miss Keger is held as a witness. She is the daughter of Mrs. Platt of Bradley.

Magruder was for many years one of the prominent farmers of Bourbonnais township, in Iowa, where he had the Hawkins farm, one of the largest for many miles around. He gave up farming last fall and moved his wife and three children to Kankakee. He then went into the automobile business.

Federal, State and College Experts Begin Experiment in Iowa.

Adel, Iowa, June 26.—The first government country-wide experiment in the elimination of hog cholera in Iowa was placed under way here yesterday. Dallas county recently was designated by Governor Clarke for the experiment, and the state veterinarian, federal government and officials of the state agricultural college will cooperate in a systematic endeavor completely to rid animals of the county of the disease. The entire plan was outlined to more than 200 farmers.

Under the direction of Professor Hess, the government expert, the government will undertake to vaccinate all infected animals.
